Redirection of methods of teaching so that every study may be made to "hitch up to the life of the individual," was declared to be the keynote of educational effort of the day by Dr. Ken-dric C. Babcock, specialist in higher education for the United States Bureau of Education, in an address last night before the opening meeting of the Virginia Educational Conference. The same thought permeated the utterances of Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, who preceded Dr. Babcock. It was heard yesterday in all the various meetings of the departments which assembled on the opening day of the conference.
Before State Superintendent J. D. Ez-zington, Jr., declared last night the conference adjourned, it was evident to the spectators that the keynote of the gathering of the educational forces of Virginia in 1912 is to be as clearly "education for contributory service" as "co-operation" was the keynote of the conference of 1909.

The facts taught—the old studies of the ages—were interpreted in the light of the relation of the individual to the needs of his community, said Dr. Babcock. Dr. Chandler asserted that the University of Virginia has fallen short of its proper mission in watching out and touching the needs of the people, and that the same is true of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and all other agencies of educational work in Virginia.

Attendance in Large.
The seventh annual meeting of the Virginia Educational Conference is now fairly launched. It bids fair to be one of the most successful in its history. The registration is already larger than that of the previous year, while many others will be in the city this morning.

John Marshall High School is packed at all hours with teachers and others interested in school work in this State.
The gathering together means a good deal in a social way to the teachers, who see each other, in many cases, after years of absence.

Some striking things were said at the various meetings yesterday.
Teachers' Features.
Dr. L. T. Royster, of Norfolk, presented in an address before the school trustees' association that within ten years Virginia will have compulsory education and compulsory medical inspection.

Delivering the address of welcome on the part of Richmond, City Attorney Henry R. Pollard advocated a law prohibiting teachers and school officials exercising political activity, so as to take the public school system out of politics.

Henry C. Stuart, of Russell, came out for far better salaries for Virginia teachers as the resources of the State increase.

Dr. Babcock, speaking before the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, denounced colleges which accuse those who do not give as presurers of students and money under false pretenses. He said that common honesty in the matter of school catalogues is a much desired quality.

Discussing the subject of civility, the Conference of Division Superintendents on Third Page.

DIRECTORS ARE DUMMIES

Witness Tells How Board Meetings Are Conducted.

New York, November 27.—William G.
Burns, of Boston, an incorporator of corporations, resumed the witness stand to-day at the trial of Julian Hawthorne, John Quincy and others charged with using the mails to defraud in promoting Canadian mining stocks.

Burns, who was president and secretary-treasurer of Temagami-Cobalt Mines Company (a Hawthorne concern) in its preliminary stages, continued in detail his story of how he conducted the affairs of the corporation. He said Quincy furnished him with a draft of the minutes of the meetings before the meetings occurred, and that he (Burns) carried out with a board of "dummy" directors of his selection the program indicated. The directors' sole duty, he admitted, was to attend meetings and put through the program furnished by Quincy.

The witness said he organized the Elk Lake-Cobalt mines in a similar manner, and he identified the minute books of the directors' meetings and explained in detail the entries. The annual meeting of the company in Portland, Me., January 13, 1911, was conducted by him, he said. Similar methods were followed in the organization of the Montreal James Mines Company, he said, but he denied having anything to do with the organization of the Hawthorne silver and iron mines.

NO WORDS PRECEDE KILLING

Witness Denies That Boyce Applied Epithet to Sneed.

Fort Worth, Texas, November 27.— That Captain A. G. Boyce, Sr., after he had been shot and mortally wounded by John Beal Sneed, denied that any words preceded the shooting, was testified to-day by John A. Covey in the trial of Sneed, accused of murder.
Sneed, testifying in his own behalf, declared yesterday that Boyce applied an epithet, and the shooting followed. At the time, Sneed testified, he thought the ranchman was about to attack him.

Other witnesses to-day gave evidence tending to discredit the testimony of W. A. Weaver, a witness for the State, who testified he heard some one of a group of men where Boyce was exclaiming: "There comes the — now." Weaver is under bond to answer to a charge of perjury.

Presiding Judge Swayne announced this afternoon that the trial would not be interrupted because of Thanksgiving Day.

ARRANGES FINDING OF BODY

Ohio Dentist Has Old Friend Call After His Suicide.

Toledo, Ohio, November 27.—That Dr.
James B. Snyder, fifty-three, dentist, of Bryan, Ohio, arranged for the convenient discovery of his body by a long-time friend before he committed suicide with poison in his lodging house here last night, was indicated to Coroner C. J. Hendler. Dr. Snyder last night obtained a promise from J. E.
Alford to call to see him at his room early this morning. Alford did so, and found the body of his old friend dead in bed.

Dr. Snyder had been here for two weeks taking treatment for neuritis, and was despondent. He leaves a wife and three children in Bryan.

KILLS MOTHER'S AFFINITY

Boy, Fourteen, Slays Sleeping Man Who Eloped With Parent.

Marion, O., November 27.—A warrant was issued here to-day for the arrest of Vito Benedetto, fourteen years of age, charging him with killing Antonio Stephano, thirty-four years of age, as he lay asleep last night.
The boy came here yesterday and told Mayor Walters that Stephano had eloped with his mother from Freeport, Ill. His father is a cobbler at Freeport.
He showed a letter signed by the Mayor of Freeport, stating the latter had ordered Stephano to leave the town.

Mrs. Benedetto is in custody of the local police.

MRS. RAYMOND ACQUITTED

Not Guilty of Murdering Miss Hackett Seven Years Ago.

Augusta, Me., November 27.—Mrs.
Elsie Raymond was to-day found guilty of the murder of Miss Mattie Hackett at Readville seven years ago.
Miss Hackett was killed by strangulation, and her body was found in a field with a cord tied tight around the neck. No arrest was made until a few months ago. It was alleged that Mrs.
Raymond was jealous because of alleged attentions paid by her husband to Miss Hackett.

The evidence introduced by the prosecution was of a circumstantial nature.

of the $7,000 he received for reporting lief trains were dispatched from Philadelphia and Lancaster. It is reported that two persons were killed and twenty-tertained Lady Bullock with stories

PATRICK WINS HIS FREEDOM AFTER TWELVE YEARS' BATTLE

Dix Gives Pardon to Convicted Slayer of Millionaire Rice.

FOUR YEARS SPENT IN DEATH HOUSE

Central Figure in Celebrated Murder Case To-Day Will Be Given Liberty for Which He Has Never Ceased to Struggle.
Always Has Protested
His Innocence.

Albany, N. Y., November 27.—Albert T. Patrick, who is serving a life sentence in Sing Sing prison for the murder of William Marsh Rice, an aged millionaire, in New York City on September 23, 1906, was pardoned to-night by Governor DIX.

Patrick, who was saved from the electric chair by the late Governor Higgins in December, 1906, has made a remarkable fight for freedom. A lawyer by profession, he protested when Governor Higgins commuted the death sentence to life imprisonment, declaring that the Governor had no legal right to cancel the original sentence and impose a punishment of life imprisonment.

"There has always been an air of mystery in this important case," Governor Dix said. "Quoting from the minority opinion of the Court of Appeals, the atmosphere that surrounded the defendant showed that a fair and impartial trial was scarcely possible."
"I trust that Mr. Patrick will devote his energies to a complete vindication of his declared innocence."

"During the past year, I have given much consideration to this case and am convinced that the defendant is entitled to have a full pardon."

May Be Released To-Day

Governor Dix said Superintendent of State Prisons Scott and scores of prominent citizens had appealed to him in Patrick's behalf. The pardon was united to-night to Warden John S.
Kennedy, of Sing Sing, and Patrick may be released to-morrow upon his receipt.

It is said Patrick plans to leave for St. Louis, the home of John F. Milliken, his brother-in-law, but may return later to New York as a claimant for the millions left by the aged man with whose murder he was charged.

Mr. Milliken aided Patrick in his fight for freedom and that he reported and fought in his efforts to prove his innocence. At no time during his long incarceration in Sing Sing, four years of which were spent in the death house, has Patrick given up the hope of gaining his freedom. Letter after letter has been received at the executive chamber urging that he be pardoned and sent to his home.

Since Governor Odell has been asked to extend executive clemency.

Governor Higgins was so impressed with the prisoner's plea that he granted him three respites, and eventually commuted his sentence from death to life imprisonment.

Patrick was charged with having brought about the death of Mr. Rice, not by his own hand, but through the agency of Charles F. Jones, a valet employed by Rice. It was principally upon the testimony of Jones, who confessed having administered chloroform to Rice, at the behest of Patrick, while he was asleep, that Patrick was convicted. Jones escaped punishment, and has long been able to hide his identity from the public. At last reports he was said to be in Texas.

Removes Higgins Aided

In saving Patrick from the death chair Governor Higgins gave these reasons: "It is not claimed that Patrick committed the murder in person, but that he procured the act to be done.
He has been convicted principally upon the testimony of Charles F. Jones, who confessed that he murdered his master while he lay asleep, instigated by Patrick, and Jones by his testimony, has purchased his own immunity from trial or punishment. Neither this fact alone nor the review of any question of the death penalty ought to be the basis for a stay of execution. The proceedings would seem to me to warrant interfering with the judgment of death pronounced against the defendant, but three of the judges of the Court of Appeals were so strongly of the opinion that errors were committed at the trial which were substantially prejudicial to the rights of Patrick that I feel that the death penalty ought not to be imposed under these circumstances to be inflicted."

Patrick was sentenced originally April 7, 1902, to die the week commencing May 5, and was immediately taken to the Sing Sing death house. An appeal was taken, and on June 1, 1905, the conviction was affirmed by the Court of Appeals. The court later denied an application for a retrial.

The death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment on August 25, 1906, as the date of execution. Former United States Senator David B. Hill argued Patrick's case before the Court of Appeals, and Patrick was brought to Albany from Sing Sing to hear the arguments.

Eventually the case was taken to the United States Supreme Court, which dismissed the appeal for want of jurisdiction.

The commutation of Patrick's sentence by Governor Higgins did not end the legal fight. Patrick contended that the sentence of death had been commuted against his wishes and contrary to law, and that he was being illegally detained in prison.

"The punishment of life imprisonment," he asserted, "is a greater and more horrible to endure than the death in the first degree."

Appeals now are pending in the Court of Appeals on technicalities raised by the convicted lawyer, who, surrounded by law books in his cell, has resorted to every legal means to gain his release.

The granting of a pardon by the Governor returns him to citizenship.

ALBERT T. PATRICK.

"AUNT DELIA'S PIE" NOT YET RECEIVED

But It Is Expected at White House in Time for Dinner.

TURKEY FINE SPECIMEN

President Taft Will Attend Pan-American Mass at St.
Patrick's.

Washington, November 27.—With a fair and cool day predicted by the Weather Bureau, the celebration of Thanksgiving to-morrow in the national capital promises to be a memorable one. President Taft and all official Washington will join in giving thanks for peace and prosperity with which the nation has been favored. All the executive department of the government will be closed, and officials and thousands of employees will participate in the observance of the day.
The big feature of the day's celebration will be the annual Pan-American Mass at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in this city. This service will be made notable by the presence of President Taft, members of his Cabinet, Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States, Senators and Representatives and members of the diplomatic corps. Cardinal Gibbons and the papal delegate, Monsignor Bonzano, will assist in the mass, and Mr. Russell, pastor of St. Patrick's, will be the celebrant. The Most Rev. James Keane, archbishop of Dubuque, will preach the sermon, whose keynote will be international peace and amity.

All preparations for the observance of Thanksgiving at the White House were completed to-night. The turkey for the White House dinner arrived this afternoon from the farm of Horace Vose, near Westerly, R. I. The White House culinary experts pronounce the bird to be one of the finest ever to grace the President's table. Up to a late hour the big mince pie expected from Miss Delia Torry, of Milbury, Mass., the President's favorite aunt, had not arrived, but it is expected to reach the White House in plenty of time for to-morrow's dinner.

NEW METHOD PROPOSED

Conference Will Vote on Plan of Selecting Members of Advocates

Anderson, S. C., November 27.—Introduction of a resolution providing for a new method of selecting the board of managers and editors of the Southern Christian Advocate was the chief feature of to-day's session of the annual conference of the South Carolina Methodist Episcopal Church, South.
The Rev. A. J. Cauburn, presiding clerk of the Spartanburg District, proposed that the new board be selected by the board of education, and that the new board then proceed to elect an editor, whose term of office shall be for four years. Hereafter they have been selected by the annual conference.

The resolution was made a special order for to-morrow.

SENATOR RAYNER BURIED

Funeral of Maryland Statesman to Be Held in Washington.

Washington, November 27.—President Taft, representatives of the diplomatic corps here, members of the Court and both houses of Congress, Governor Goldsborough and other Maryland State officials attended the funeral services here to-day of the late Senator Isidor Rayner, of Maryland, who died here Monday.

The Rev. U. G. B. Pierce, chaplain of the Senate, delivered the funeral sermon at the House, where the principal services took place.

Brief ceremonies were conducted at the grave in Rock Creek Cemetery, where interment was made. Members of the Senate and the House acted as honorary pall-bearers.

COURT DECLARES BONDS INVALID

"Dynamiters" Must Furnish New Ones or Go to Jail.

INDEMNIFICATION ILLEGAL

Judge Threatens to Imprison Attorney for Defense for Contempt.

Indianapolis, Ind., November 27.—On the ground that their present bonds, aggregating $105,000, were invalid, fourteen of the defendants in the "dynamite conspiracy" trial were instructed by the Federal Court to-day that "within a reasonable time" they must procure new bonds or remain in jail in the intervals between sessions of the trial.
The court held that as it was on the eve of a holiday, he would not enforce his ruling to-night, in which event, attorneys for the defense said, the defendants must inevitably have to go to jail, for new bonds could not be had on such short notice.

Three other defendants—Herbert S.
Rockin, Edward Smythe and James E.
Hoyt—have been confined in the county jail in the custody of Federal officers for several days because they were unable to furnish bonds aggregating $15,000.

In the argument over the point, Federal Judge Anderson accused Alfred R. Hovey, of the defenses counsel, of being "insolent" to the court, adding "if you repeat the offense I will pre-sist where you will need some bonds."

At first District Attorney Miller included Frank M. Ryan, president of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, and John T. Butler, vice-president of the union, among those whose bonds, he said, were indemnified, but later attorneys for them announced that the indemnity had been withdrawn, and the bondsman alone now were responsible for the appearance for those particular defendants. Mr. Miller estimated that the limit on which Saturday night he some time before the men may remain at liberty on their present bonds.

Judge Anderson ruled that a bondsman who was secured against liability either by a defendant or by a third person had no interest whether the defendants appeared, and that indem-nified bonds "were against public policy."

Those whom the court ruled must furnish new bonds "or be taken in custody" are Frank C. Webb, New York; Clarence E. Dowd, Rochester, N. Y.; William K. Benson, East Golway, N. Y.; George Anderson and Peter J. Smith, Cleveland; Hiram Cline, Muncie, Ind.; Spurgeon P. Meadows, Indianapolis; Daniel Buckley, Rock Island, Ill.; P. A. Cooley, New Orleans; F. J. Murphy and Charles Wachtmeis-ter, Detroit; F. K. Painter, Omaha; Henry W. Legleiter, Denver, and J. E.
Munsey, Salt Lake City.

holiday, and it would be impossible to procure new bonds at once, and it would work a hardship "for the defendants were not going to run away."

"It is clearly against public policy to accept indemnified bonds, and if that's the law, I'll have to enforce it whether to-morrow is Thanksgiving Day or not, said the court."

Later, on pleas of attorneys, Judge Anderson said he would allow a reasonable time to procure the new bonds.
During the cross-examination by Senator Kern of Orville E. McLaughlin, Attorney Hovey interrupted the proceedings by saying: "Your Honor, I want to call your attention to the district attorney giving signals to the witness by shaking his head."

District Attorney Miller said: "I was doing nothing of the sort."
